Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Clifford (Ki) and Maxine Caserio exchanged their wedding vows, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, Clifford married Maxine on August 30, 1947, and to that union one child was born, Clifford (also Ki), who further blessed their lives with two grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and a fifth great-grandchild on the way; and,

Whereas, The newlywed couple of 70 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Before retiring, Clifford, a World War II Veteran, worked for Homestake Mining Company, and Maxine worked for Norwest Bank; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Clifford and Maxine have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, Clifford and Maxine will celebrate their 70th Anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable occasions in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 30, 2017, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State
